Make Family Dinner a New Tradition: Oven Fried Chicken

Corn cereal crumbs and crushed crackers create a delicious coating. The yogurt tenderizes the chicken. A light spray of olive oil before baking guarantees lightly crispy results.

1/2 sleeve (about 20) whole-grain salted crackers, pulsed in a food processor until fine (about 1/2 cup)
2 1/2 cups corn cereal flakes, pulsed in a food processor to fine crumbs (about 1/2 cup)
2 tablespoons sesame seeds
3/4 teaspoon cayenne pepper
1/2 teaspoon garlic powder
2 egg whites
1 cup lowfat, plain yogurt
1 tablespoon Dijon mustard
1/2 teaspoon salt
Olive oil cooking spray
4 medium sized skinless chicken breasts and 4 skinless chicken thighs, rinsed and patted dry (about 3 1/2 pounds chicken)
Preheat oven to 375 degrees F. Lightly spray a baking sheet with olive oil.

Combine the crackers and corn cereal crumbs, sesame seeds, cayenne, and garlic powder in a shallow bowl.

In a large bowl, combine egg whites, yogurt, Dijon mustard, and salt. Add the chicken pieces and coat thoroughly with the yogurt mixture.

One at a time, dip the chicken pieces in the cracker mixture, packing crumbs onto chicken. Arrange the chicken on a baking sheet and spray lightly with olive oil cooking spray.

Bake for 45 to 50 minutes, or until juices run clear when chicken is pierced with a knife.

Can We Really See?

Children's minds are not tainted with the impurities of society that surrounds them. A child and an adult can view the exact same photo and see completely different things. Though it may be forced, I think we should find something in each day to view as a child would see it...

From the desk of Ellen Daly

For the month of June, we will be reviewing all of the letters, numbers, shapes, and colors that we learned during the school year. Our new curriculum was very educational as well as loads of fun. The children enjoyed all the thematic units and the craft projects that went along with them.

Make sure you mark your calendar if your child is one of our graduating students on Thursday, June 19th at 10 o'clock in the morning. There will be a sign up sheet on the parent board for the reception that follows the ceremony. Please take a moment to check the list to make sure your child is included and that their name is spelled correctly.

Ms. Lindsay's Corner

Our school year is coming to an end and that means summer is right around the corner. We have lots of learning & fun planned for the weeks ahead as we say goodbye to some of our friends and welcome new friends. It has been a wonderful year and we have learned so much from all the letters of the alphabet to all the colors in the rainbow, from shapes to numbers. We have also learned a lot about ourselves and our friends throughout the year. As we enter June and begin to wrap up, we will begin with a week called "ALL ABOUT ME". We are going to get as creative as can be with lots of fun activities! We all look forward to beginning our summer with birds, seeds, and gardens. Tweet, Tweet!

June's Little Reminders

The summer Kiddie Kamp starts on June 23rd with Birds, Seeds, and Gardens as our theme. We will be meeting some new friends that have signed up and look forward to a great summer. We are planning on continuing our Pool Fridays, so make sure you are signed up if you plan on attending on those days, as we have limited spots.
